

Staff House

The image is a detailed site plan of a resort building. The building is oriented vertically. At the top is a large green tennis court. Below it is a covered entrance area. The main building consists of several interconnected wings. The left wing contains a staff house and a large lawn with palm trees. The right wing contains a gym and playroom. The bottom wing contains a swimming pool and a beach sala. A small brown square is located in the bottom left corner of the building's footprint.
